

STEVE MORRISON

His extraordinary guitar playing has taken Steve to festivals and venues across the country, Europe wide. and now our TV screens as a 'Guitar Star' finalist. His ability to hold the bass-line and chords, while adding melody lines that sing, make his guitar playing unique. He is a master of open-chord tunings and his bottle-neck guitar turns heads. To see him play his guitar is to see something very natural. He has released 6 CDs and enjoyed record sales.
